General Meeting

Selby Library Auditorium

1331 First St., Sarasota

6 pm

Jaimie Engle, middle-grade author, will speak to the Sarasota Fiction Writers on Tuesday, June 6, at 6 p.m. at Selby Library.

She is the author of several fantasy and science fiction adventures. “Clifton Chase and the Arrow of Light” was awarded a BRAG Medallion in 2015 and was listed as a 2013 Top Ten Pick by Kid Lit Reviews. Her sci-fi novella, “The Dredge,” won the Writers of the Future Award in 2014.

Engle will present “Your Book as a Business.” Whether authors self-publish or go the traditional route, there are limited funds to market a book. How can authors succeed? This session will explore free and low-cost marketing ideas; how to land school visits, utilizing technology for promotion and name recognition, and most importantly, business skills. Authors must learn to brand themselves along with their product. They must understand the competition inside them between the writer, the agent, and the publisher. They must realize their book is a product, not a work of art.

Attendees will learn how to value themselves as a business and their book as a product; how to gain free publicity on a national level through media releases and local exposure, and other ways to make an income through school visits, library discussions, and conferences.

Engle lives in Melbourne, Fla., with her husband, boys and dog. She is always at work on her next book.

Sarasota Fiction Writers meetings are free and open to the public. For more information about Sarasota Fiction Writers, please visit thequillguild1.wixsite.com/sfwriters. For more information about Engle, please visit thewriteengle.com.

BITS & PIECES

This is our announcement section of happenings and events in the lives of our members. If you have any info you want to share from the sale of a short story, publication of your book, a book signing, entering a contest, especially winning, or if you have a birth, wedding, or other event in your family you just want to share with your fellow members....

Please email me at Dgould497@aol.com and I will include your announcement in the letters. If you know of any upcoming contests, workshops, or conferences you plan to attend, or just want to inform the rest of us about one you like, please let me know. I would also like to know about other local writing groups. Sharing information helps everyone.

Please consider purchasing books written by your fellow members and support their efforts. Soon it will be your turn! Also, if the books are available on Amazon, write a four or five star review. (If you feel a member's book is lower than a four of five star, please just pass on the review. Amazon considers a three-star and lower a bad review.)

Good Reviews help sell books on Amazon.

New Member Jack Massa writes fantasy and science fiction. His new book, Ghosts of Bliss Bayou, was released last November: <http://triskelionbooks.com/ghosts-of-bliss-bayou/>

His epic fantasy novel, Cloak of the Two Winds, is now available in print and e-Book from Amazon. - <http://tinyurl.com/h2wyb6e>. His website is <http://triskelionbooks.com/>

Past Speaker Helaine Mario announced that her novel, The Lost Concerto, won first place at Florida Writers Associations Royal Palm Literary awards in the suspense category.

Member Rusty Coats announced his second novel, “Avalon,” was just published.

Featured as the first Big Idea of 2017 on best-selling science fiction author John Scalzi’s website was a great nod.

Avalon was supposed to be the new City of Light: a clean, beautiful place to live, work and play - virtually. There was a cost, however, to this utopia. Programmers Disease. As the epidemic swept through the nation, society rushed in to shut it down. But, cyberspace, like nature, abhors a vacuum and every vice imaginable rushed in to fill the the elaborate Art Deco void. Avalon, a once shining city of virtual opportunity became the nightmare of sex, violence and gambling, and despite the Great Prohibition, everyone flocked there for a fix. Avalon. It is what you think.

Member Donn Fleming announced his new book launch. Always & Never joins Sarasota Sunrise and Mangrove Murders rounding out the Big Ben Mystery Series Trilogy. Available on Amazon/Kindle or personalized copies through www.donnfleming.com.

Member Elizabeth Stevens advised she sold some of her 22 books in December in Berlin, Germany, at the Book Fair at the Hamburger Bahnhof Museum of Modern Art. Her three lives d'artiste (texts with original etchings) were acquired by the Kunstbibliothek of the Staatliche Museum.

Member Karen Koenig LCSW, Med, an eating disorder therapist, has written a new book that's coming out in January – “Helping Patients Outsmart Overeating: Psychological Strategies for Doctors and Health Care Providers.” The book is published by Rowman & Littlefield and is available for pre-order from Amazon and Barnes & Noble.

“Helping Patients Outsmart Overeating,” which Koenig co-authored with a physician, offers a new paradigm for doctors and health care providers who treat patients with eating and weight concerns. It describes how both providers and patients are frustrated by weight-loss plans and programs that fail long-term and presents a psychology-based explanation for why diets fail and how they, in fact, may adversely impact patients’ mental and physical health. It also includes strategies for doctors, health care providers and higher weight patients to help patients reach their health

New Member Leita Kaldi Davis worked for the United Nations and UNESCO, for Tufts University Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy and Harvard University. She worked with Roma (Gypsies) for fifteen years, became a Peace Corps Volunteer in Senegal at the age of 55, then went to work for the Albert Schweitzer Hospital in Haiti for five years. Member Andrew Parker, winner of the 2016 Sarasota Fiction Contest, announced he has two books available in paperback or as a download from Amazon.com. Andrew was the final guest on Culture Coast and spoke about his literary endeavors, his awards, his two published books and the five he is still working on.

He will be releasing Reality Gone Wrong in the near future. He is currently working with a marketing pro to launch a successful campaign with the publication of his third book.

Aspiring Member Barry Wolfe recently launched his novel Izzy White? The novel explores the psyche of a confused Jewish boy who attends Howard University in the late 50's and his world among blacks at college and whites at home in the suburbs.

Previous Member Brenda Seabrooke announced a story, "The Man Who Wasn't Missed" was just published in the anthology BUSTED at Level Best Books.

Member Elizabeth Sims announced Crimes in a Second Language, her new standalone novel, is now available on Amazon.

“Crimes is a departure from series work for me,” she says. “This is a standalone novel about the relationship between two very different women in contemporary Los Angeles. The story was inspired by my late, great aunt and her relationship with a Mexican-American housecleaner.”

Is smart and dead better than dumb and safe?

Elnice Coker and her husband Arthur, retired schoolteachers, move from Indiana to the Hollywood Hills in a last-ditch attempt at novelty and happiness. California alone can't do the trick, but when Elnice befriends her housecleaner, Solita, her life opens up to friendship and intrigue. Elnice teaches Solita English although Solita's common-law husband, Luis, is against it. The women build a secret, tentative friendship.

Meanwhile, wannabe novelist Jason M is busy writing faulty information into tech manuals for airplane-making machines at a factory in the Valley. One of a swarm of corporate saboteurs scattered around Los Angeles, he's bossed by a nameless, exacting mentor. But when he begins to have ethical doubts, he discovers it's harder to get out than it was to get in.

The lure of easy money casts its spell over everybody, and as Elnice and Solita grow closer, they encounter treachery and danger where they least expect it. The saboteurs intertwine, innocent lives hang in the balance, and as Elnice risks everything to dig deeper, she learns the value of rejecting safety—and living life to the max.

More news from Elizabeth Sims:

“My blog, Zestful Writing <http://esimsauthor.blogspot.com/>, continues to cook along. We cover the writer's life, writing techniques, language use and abuse, and whatever else seems worthy to discuss. I continue writing articles for Writer's Digest magazine and their various special editions; currently you'll find my pieces in the January, February, and March/April issues. (After that, a bit of a break...but I've sent along some new ideas to the mag, so we'll see what's next.) I contributed to the recently published the new edition of the Complete Handbook of Novel Writing, from Writer's Digest Books. Also, I'm developing ideas for online teaching, so stay tuned for that. Am also working on Best Boy, the fourth in the Rita Farmer mystery series.”

Member Jo Schmidt (w/a ANNA SCHMIDT) a Wisconsin Seasonal member currently has novellas in two anthologies and the second in her Western series: Last Chance Cowboys was released in December. Romantic Times has already praised book 2—THE LAWMAN—as follows: “Readers who yearn for a solid Western romance are sure to find Schmidt’s second Last Chance Cowboy installment as the perfect read. The realistic second-chance at love story — with its intelligent characters, sensuality and suspense elements — engages readers. 4 Stars.”

Book 3 in the series, THE OUTLAW, will be released in July 2017.

In September she will be speaking at the annual conference of Historical Writers of America in Albuquerque, NM.

Anna has three times been a finalist for the coveted RITA award for romance fiction and has twice before been recognized by Romantic Times magazine with their Reviewer's Choice Award. Check out her Amazon Author's Page for more on our award winning author.

Manasota Films Single Take Challenge

Please note the contest later in the newsletter. If you have written a short story that could be filmed in a single take...a one scene show, a humorous joke, a small horror story, anything without “special effects”, this might be your chance to see how you fare writing for video. This film can be shot on your i-phone or any video camera. They are not looking for high-end video. They are looking for innovation. Give it a shot. With the New Year, there will be a new location and a new format for this group of local film industry creatives. The group has members from every facet of the industry: Writers, Actors, Actresses, Film Crew, Extras, Directors, Producers, Set Designers, Make-up pros, Costume designers, and anyone else with a desire to be part of our growing film industry. Membership is FREE and currently they number over 1100. Join up on Facebook by going to Manasota Films and request to join.

For four years they have created Indie films and shorts and shared them on the big screen once a month at local theatres. Now they are changing the format to encourage everyone to work together and discuss what they need from each other to become more successful.

(HOWEVER, the New Florida Cinema film group will be picking up the slack under the leadership of John Lagerholm. See information on them below for meeting information.) Monthly meetings of Manasota Films will be held at the private upstairs bar at The Starlite Room, at 10th and Coconut downtown Sarasota. The Starlite has established itself as the place to be for the performing arts and artists in Sarasota. Meetings will be in a much more open format, and will be more conducive to face to face interactions. They will have guest speakers, sharing of ideas, and discussions about how we can best support Sarasota's new film industry.

TWO NEW SCREEN WRITING GROUPS & and Three Film Festival Invites

SARASOTA'S SCREENWRITERS, STORYTELLERS AND CREATIVES

New screenwriting group, also covers storytelling.

Richard Keehn, an award winning screenwriter as well as the producer on the upcoming Screenplay Show by Rick Ramage invites you to his writing group no matter your skill level. Just bring your imaginative, curiosity and discipline. The major focus is on the art, craft and – my favorite – the business of screenwriting, but we also will delve into storytelling in general as the need warrants. So welcome. Marketing Opportunities

North Port Free Radio Time

If authors would like to read poems or short stories, they can take advantage of a new opportunity on Monday nights at 97.5 radio station, which is in a strip mall south of Warm Mineral Springs in North Port. Readers meet at 7:00 and are taped at 7:30 at the Common Grounds Meeting Hall next door to the 97.5 radio station.

Because the project is getting off the ground, there's no problem for an author to find a reading slot. On Sunday at 3:00, people from all over the world can hear the authors on the INTERNET. By December, 97.5 expects to have the capability to be heard on the RADIO from Ft. Myers to Sarasota. This heightened media range was made possible by a large donation from a community member for a large tower.

For more information contact Dobie Pasco at sonnypasco59@yahoo.com

The station is ALL volunteer.

New Imprint Seeking Romance Stories with Heat

Untreed Reads is pleased to announce a brand-new imprint to expand our catalog of offerings. Untreed After Dark is our new line for romance stories that take the heat level up a few notches from our sweet stories. Even though there is a lot of romance on the market today, we feel that there are still niches to fill. That's the ultimate goal of our new line.

We do have some rules for this new line:

1. Every sexual orientation is welcome.
 2. We would especially love to see romance stories about people of various ethnic backgrounds, people in their fifties or older, people with disabilities, 19th and 20th century historical (1800-2000), etc.
- If you have looked around and said, "I don't see another story out there remotely like mine," you're probably what we're looking for.
3. Works need to be believable and real. No genies, werewolves, vampires, body-switchers, witches, aliens, etc. Need real people in real relationships/situations.
 4. Sorry, but no works that take place before 1800. We feel that market has plenty of material already.
 5. Only works 25,000 words or more will be considered. Short story collections, however, would be fine.
 6. Cross-genre stories are especially welcome (romantic mysteries, for example).
 7. As we are not specifically looking for erotica, the heat level is currently limited to "NC-17." Sex doesn't have to be in the story, but if it's appropriate for the work, that's fine.
 8. The overall story is infinitely more important to us than a couple of hot scenes. We prefer to think of this as "literary romance/literary erotica." We want engaging characters with real romantic struggles and successes.
 9. HEA (Happily Ever After) is NOT a requirement. Sometimes romance doesn't end with the two people ending up together, and that's perfectly OK. That's real.
 10. Absolutely, positively NO: rape, bestiality, sex with underage people, or all the other things you would expect to be forbidden.
 11. Previously published works are definitely acceptable, providing electronic rights have reverted to the author.
 12. Works that have been published through a self-publishing venture (i.e.: Smashwords, Kindle Direct/Kindle Prime) will not be accepted.
 13. Agents and current Untreed Reads authors may submit directly to: Jay Hartman. All others need to send works to submissions@untreedreads.com
 14. All submissions need to be sent in their entirety in RTF, DOC or ODP formats, Times New Roman, 12 pt. This rule does not necessarily apply to current Untreed Reads authors or agents. If you are unsure if a work would be appropriate for us, please do feel free to query Jay Hartman at jhartman@untreedreads.com.

Saw Palm – A Literary Magazine published by USF Tampa

Saw Palm is a literary magazine devoted exclusively to creative work from and about Florida. For more information, please see our website: <http://www.sawpalm.org/>

Prepare Your Submissions for Saw Palm 2014, submissions are accepted between July 1 and October 1st.

Saw Palm is a Florida-themed journal, however we welcome writers and artists from across the country and the globe as long as the work is connected to Florida (via images, people, themes, et cetera). We also welcome creative works from Floridians that are not obviously about someplace else. Please check out past issues, available for download as free PDFs. We publish one issue per year in the spring.

Saw Palm does not accept work that was previously published either online or in print. We welcome simultaneous submissions as long as you immediately notify Saw Palm of acceptance elsewhere. Response time varies between 1 to 6 months. Our general reading period is between July 1st and October 1st, however submissions for Places to Stand in Florida are accepted year-round.

All submissions must be made electronically through our online submissions manager. Please upload prose and poetry files in .doc or .docx formats only. Art, photography, and comics should be uploaded in .jpeg / .jpg format only. Paper submissions sent via snail mail will be recycled unread. Click here to submit.

Poetry

We accept up to five poems per submission period at a maximum of 10 pages. Please send all poems in one document.

Fiction

We ask that fiction submissions be no longer than 6000 words. Please send only one story per reading period.

Flash Fiction

We accept up to three works of flash fiction (750 words or less) per submission period. Please send all stories in one document.

Creative Nonfiction

We ask that submissions of memoir and essays be no longer than 6000 words. Please send only one piece per reading period.

Art & Photography

We accept up to five submissions of art or photography per reading period. Please send files in .jpeg / .jpg format only. You may also include a URL if a portfolio of your work is online.

Comics

We welcome submissions of graphic fiction and nonfiction of up to seven pages, whether in black & white, greyscale, or full color. Submit in .jpeg / .jpg format only. Keep in mind that the journal's dimensions are smaller (5"x7") than the average literary journal and so comics with small panels filled with intricate art are not well-suited.

Interviews

We are especially interested in interviews of Florida writers and artists, although we're open to almost any Florida-related subject. Please query us about the interview subject first, via email.

Reviews (appear on sawpalm.org)

We are interested in reviews of any Florida-related subject: author, book, film, tourist attraction, CD, website, beach, park, toll roads, snack stands, local landmarks—anything! These reviews will appear on www.sawpalm.org. Unlike submissions of creative work, current or recent USF students and faculty are welcome to submit reviews. Size limit: 6000 words.

Places to Stand in Florida (appears on sawpalm.org)

Please tell us what it's like to stand at a specific place in Florida at a specific time of day in 500 words or less. While we enjoy the unusual, locations should be public and accessible (so not your bathroom!) Please include GPS coordinates.

Unlike other categories, current or recent USF students and faculty are welcome to submit pieces for the Places to Stand series.

Poems submitted as part of the Places to Stand series are welcome but should be justified left and otherwise not have complex formatting and spacing. This is due to technical limitations in Google Earth.

Update March 2016:

Sawpalm just released their 10th Anniversary Issue with the special theme—Florida-Cuba Connection.

They plan to return to the Florida theme for future issues. While submissions for the journal won't open until July 1st, they take submissions for the online literary map, "Places to Stand," year round. For this category, they accept short (500 word max) submissions of nonfiction and poetry that show what it's like to stand at a particular spot in Florida at a particular moment in time.

Words of Wisdom

I return again to my writing guru, Holly Lisle for this month's "Words of Wisdom". Every time I call it that, I hear an echo in my head reverberating. I don't remember the old, old television show that had the voiceover, but it strikes me like that. Hopefully, one of you will remember the show and solve the mystery. It keeps me up at night when I have these mysteries.

This month, I am providing Holly's advice on looking for the good to create your story rather than the negative. These trying times are providing a lot of negative, and I hope you look for the positive and help write it forward. Maybe some optimism is needed from all corners of the universe.

See what's good

By Holly Lisle

The news is a nightmare. Economic disaster, environmental disaster, political disaster, war, disease, murder, psychopaths, terrorists...

I remember in 1966, riding to East Liverpool into the Ohio Valley with my dad. As you came over the ridge and started down into the valley, you could see the yellow air below. As soon as the car rolled into the smog, your eyes and your throat would start to burn. Steel mills, pottery mills, and other heavy industry clogged the air.

In 1969, in my home state, Ohio, the Cuyahoga River caught fire...for something like the fifth or sixth time.

In 1970, Lake Erie was declared dead, and it was estimated that no fish would be able to live in it again for thousands of years.

And we had Vietnam, Nixon and Watergate, drugs and despair.

You're a writer, and there is a huge temptation to buy into the news. To play the "if this continues" extrapolation game right into your own end of the world doomsday scenario. Y2K and The Fall Of All Civilization, anyone?

But no matter how tempted you are, you need to look at the world through your own eyes. NOT the eyes of the media.

Rahm Emanuel blessed us all with an utterly honest (and accidentally uncensored) comment about the value of disaster to politicians: "You never let a serious crisis go to waste. And what I mean by that it's an opportunity to do things you think you could not do before."

He told the truth. But it isn't a new truth. He said what politicians and newsmen have been doing since politics and news began. Scare people, and grab power. Create a crisis, blow a small issue into a big one, manufacture the news, and make people think you're the one who can save them.

And while you're at it, sell lots of advertising time on your news programs, ad inches in your papers, and ad pixels on your internet site.

The news is a nightmare.

The news has ALWAYS been and will ALWAYS be a nightmare.

The news and the folks who flog the news get PAID to print what sells. Fear, horror, blood, devastation, and despair... those are what sells to the masses.

Ask the Romans. They made an art form out of creatively murdering people in front of an audience to keep the poor pacified---"bread and circuses" sold then, and "bread and circuses" sell now. Ask any news anchor.

Fear is not the truth, though.

The truth is that people (the same people who make things worse) can also make them better.

Today, you can breathe the air in Pittsburgh, East Liverpool, and anywhere else in the Ohio River Valley. The heavy industry is gone. Economically, this is not great. Breathing-wise? Very helpful.

1969 is the LAST time the Cuyahoga River caught fire. Why? Because people decided to get off their asses and fix the problem---and the Cuyahoga River is now primarily filled with water.

Lake Erie has both native fish species and native plant species in place again. It isn't perfect yet---but it isn't thousands of years later, either. People took action. Things got better.

Nixon ENDED Vietnam, and things got better.

People discovered Nixon's paranoia and corruption, and the weight of public opinion forced him to resign. Things got better.

People dream, imagine, act, and create, and THINGS GET BETTER.

The computer upon which you received this e-mail is more powerful than the entire computing set-up NASA used to send men to the moon, and one guy working in his garage laid the foundation for you to have this magnificent piece of equipment, not for millions of dollars, but for a couple thousand. Maybe, if you've bought a computer recently, for a few hundred.

We can e-mail each other instead of writing letters that have to be delivered by plane and truck through costly service centers. We have satellites that allow us to communicate with each other instantly.

We can create and reach out directly to the people who have an interest in what we create, thought mechanisms as previously exotic and unthinkable as eBay, Amazon, our own personal web site.

We can chat with just about anyone, anywhere, at any time, via cellphone. I heard from my Air Force kid, who's stationed in the desert. I didn't have to wait for a letter. He called. Real time. "Hey, Mom, I miss you. I'm okay."

Tell me there isn't a mother during World War II who wouldn't have given every bite of rationed food in the house for one phone call like that.

If you want to write a book and publish it yourself, you can go to any of a number of web businesses that won't charge you a dime for setting up your book as a print-on-demand, bound, full-color, gorgeous ready-to-go production.

Your LIFE is not the news. You were born, you will die, and in between that unchangeable start and stop, you will grow, learn, love, imagine, create, build, dare, fall, skin your knees, break your heart, laugh with friends, weep from loss, take risks, fail, succeed...

Your life can be wonderful, if you dare to see the good in front of your eyes, instead of the bad that people get paid to PUT in front of your eyes.

And your stories will be richer, your characters more full.

Yes, bad things happen. Yes, you may end up in the middle of one or more of them in your life time. I was in the BIG Guatemala earthquake in 1976. People I love have died. Terrible things happened to my two older kids when they were little.

Bad things happen. I know this better than most. I was an RN for ten years, mostly working ER and ICU. I know what death looks like. But I didn't take death as a given. I fought it, one dying patient at a time. A lot of times, I and the other people who worked with me won.

If you're lucky, you live through the bad, you pick yourself up, and you move on.

Everyone dies.

It's what we do while we're alive that matters---and we can be part of creating what's bad, be a part of spreading fear, be a part of destroying hope and joy, be a part of contributing to the heat death of the universe.

Or we can see the good. We can understand that we have it in ourselves to create what is wonderful. Something that shows people who, when faced with horror and despair, pick themselves up and make things better.

And seeing the good...

We can write the good.

Write with joy. Know that when you do, it MATTERS.

Holly Lisle

That's all for this month. Hope you enjoyed it.
